

Go fishing... every week

Spend time with your family

New Year's Resolutions - 2019

Do a workout
every day

A congregation is only strong when its members are strong...not just a few

Train myself to trust God more

New Year's Resolutions - 2020

Train myself to trust God more

- God knows what He's doing...but how much do I really trust Him?
  - 2 Cor. 4:7-9, 13-14 – Am I truly and completely convinced that God will raise me from the dead? Am I convinced Christ was raised?
  - Rom. 8:28, 31, 35-39 – Can I train myself to truly trust that God works all things for good?

Train myself to trust God more

Train myself to have proper
perspective about life

New Year's Resolutions - 2020

Train myself to have proper perspective about life

- The reality of life is that all things end...but how much will I allow that knowledge to sway how I live while I have “today”?
  - Jas. 4:13-16 – Am I truly prepared for there not being a “tomorrow”? How much do I truly recognize that every “tomorrow” is a gift from God?
  - 2 Cor. 4:16-18 – Do I recognize that every sorrow and obstacle I face now can “renew” my soul? Am I “looking” at the things “which are not seen”?

Train myself to trust God more

Train myself to have proper
perspective about life

New Year's Resolutions - 2020

Train myself to work
towards perfection

Train myself to work towards perfection

- It's one thing to say I'm a Christian...but am I actively training myself to be the best Christian I can be?
  - 1 Cor. 9:19-27 – Do I consider the ability to be “all things to all men” a talent some are born with? If I had to run, and finish, a competition as a Christian, could I win? Could I even compete? Am I certain?
  - 2 Pet. 3:11, 14-18 – What type of person should I be? Am I blameless and growing in the Word?

Train myself to
trust God more

Train myself to have proper
perspective about life

New Year's Resolutions – 2020

Train myself to work
towards perfection