

The Truth Regarding Continuous Revelation

“Continuous revelation or continuing revelation is a theological belief or position that God continues to reveal divine principles or commandments to humanity. In Christian traditions, it is most commonly associated with The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS, Mormon Church), the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers), and with Pentecostal and Charismatic (Holiness) Christianity, though it is found in some other denominations (Catholicism) as well.” --Wikipedia

Continuous Revelation

- God has spoken to us through His Son – Heb. 1:1-2
  - God has changed the delivery of His word, moving from mere men (prophets) who were inspired by God to speak to His people, to the actual Son of God Himself.
  - Considering that His Son has spoken to us, why would we need to go back to mere men again?

Continuous Revelation

- What He has spoken represents all we need, for this life and the next – II Pet. 3:3-4
- Everything we need for “life and godliness” has been given to us by God through Christ, and through this knowledge we have “great and precious promises”.
- Why would God inspire Peter to write this if He would be sending continual refinements and changes to His Word? This would make God a liar, and it is impossible for God to lie (Heb.6:18).

Continuous Revelation

- Having given us what we need, God will not change it – Gal. 1:8-9
- Paul disallows his own ability to change what had already been delivered, and even disallowed the authority of an angel to change what had been delivered.
- Why would God inspire Paul to write this if He fully intended to change it anyway? Would this not be dishonest of God? If God simply “changed His mind”, then how can we count on anything the Bible promises?
